

2006 Stow TV Cable Channel 9 Programs

Dec. 21, 2005 – Jan. 4 2006

Munchkins Soccer

Christmas Gifts Galore

Sounds of Stow

The "Munchkins Soccer Team," of four and five year olds, is featured with a 9-minute video by Kent Seith. "Christmas Gifts Galore" tours Stow's craft fairs, visiting "Breakfast with Santa" and the Stow Garden Club, COA, and SPTO displays. The "Silent Movie Demo" that took place recently at Center School is showing, along with the recent "Sounds of Stow" concert with music by Bruckner, Dvorak, and Mozart. "Off the Wall" is a local sports show.

Jan. 5-25, 2006

"The Gold Rush"

Living with Coyotes

Stop Bullying

Stow Selectmen meetings are shown live or rerun on Tuesday evenings. "The Gold Rush" (85 min) with Charlie Chaplin, featuring Richard Hughes on piano, was recorded at Town Hall recently. "Working Together to Stop Bullying" (20 min) is shown at the request of the Middlesex District Attorney Office. "Coyotes: Learning to Live with a Misunderstood Animal" (15 min) was produced by MSPCA. "Sound Waves" (43 min) is the subject of "Fun with Science, Engineering and Technology,"

Jan. 26 - Feb 8, 2006

It's "Oldies" week on Stow TV cable channel 9. "Center School Winter Concert" (83 min) and "Pompo Share a Song" concert (32 min) both took place in 2001. The "Sounds of Stow" concert (100 min) took place in the fall of 2000.

Stow Selectmen Meetings are shown live or rerun on Tuesdays. On Feb 7, the Joint Selectmen and School Committee meeting will be cablecast live. "Observance and Inference" (42 min) is the subject of "Fun with Science, Engineering and Technology," "Off the Wall" (30 min) is a local sports show.

Feb. 9-22, 2006

Center Schl Winter Concert

Meet the Council on Aging

Nashoba FIRST Robotics Team

Recognizing Strokes

Adam Dewey & Crazy Creek

The recent "Center School Winter Concert" is featured. The theme was "Celebrate the 20th Century." The "Nashoba FIRST Robotics Team" shows off the robot this team is building for an upcoming competition. The "Council on Aging" introduces the staff members and the many COA services. The cartoon video about "Recognizing Strokes" was provided by the Stow Board of Health. "Adam Dewey and Crazy Creek" give a rousing bluegrass concert recorded at the First Parish Church coffeehouse. The Joint Selectmen/School Committee meeting and Selectmen meeting will be shown.

Feb. 23 – Mar. 8, 2006

Center/Pompo
Lip Sync

Fire Prevention PSA
Stow Webelos Den 2

Flowers at Small Farm

Should You Drive?

It's "Lip Sync" week on Stow TV, with the recent Pompo and Center School performances. Stow Webelos Den 2 produced a wonderful public service announcement on "Fire Safety." "Flowers at Small Farm" will remind you that summer is coming. "Should You Drive" is an informative talk recorded at Stow Council on Aging. Both the Feb. 27 Joint Meeting of Selectmen with School Board and the Selectmen meeting will be cablecast live.

March 9-19, 2006

Fat in the Diet
Nutritionist Talk

Sounds of Stow
Winter 06 Concert

Hale Winter
Band Concert

The Hale play "Joseph" will air starting March 20. "Hale Winter Concert" is scheduled through March 19. The "Sounds of Stow" performance with music of Bach and Mozart is featured. The nutritionist's talk about "Fat in the Diet" was recorded at the Council on Aging. The video of Patrick Murphy speaking at the Stow-Maynard Democratic Town Committee was submitted by a Stow citizen. A video on "Longfellow's Wayside Inn" previews the planned COA lunch there. "Off the Wall" discusses local sports. Selectmen meetings are shown live or rerun on Tuesdays.

March 16 – April 5, 2006

Videotaping Basketball Games

Hale Play "Joseph"

"The New Drug Program" Talk

It's March Madness time for the Stow-Maynard Recreational Basketball League on Stow TV. Watch all the Championship Games, played March 25. The teams are 5th and 6th grade boys, 5th and 6th grade girls, and 7th and 8th grade boys. The Hale School play "Joseph" continues through April 5. The band "Final Approach" played at the recent Community Chest Dance. The talk about "The New Drug Plans," recorded at Council on Aging, describes Medicare Part D and the Advantage Plans. "Off the Wall" discusses local sports. The background music is by local artist Patti DeRosa, used with permission.

April 13-19, 2006

Brownie Troop

New Eagle Scouts

The Arts Buffet

Brownie Troop 2508 and Daisy Troop 2528 of Stow celebrated the 94th birthday of Girl Scouts by creating "Birthday Bags" for the Stow Food Pantry. New Eagle Scouts took their oath at the "Eagle Scouts Court of Honor." At the "Arts Buffet Festival" children did hands-on arts projects. Background music on the Bulletin Board is by local musician Katrin. On the Bulletin Board are photos by Lew Halprin of the Brownie and Daisy Troops, the Eagle Scouts, and the Arts Buffet, and by Ann DeCristofaro of the Hale play "Joseph."

April 20-26, 2006

Center Concert

Heritage Landscape

Dr. Abraham

The recent "Center School Spring Band Concert" is featured this week. At the Heritage Landscape Program meeting, Stow citizens identified the most important town vistas. The talk by Dr. Henry Abraham is on "Teen Drug Use." Stow "Candidates Night" will be shown.

April 27 – May 3, 2006

Center Concert

Candidates Night

Perambulation

Stow "Candidates Night" introduces the candidates running for office in the May 9 election. The April 25 Selectmen meeting will be rerun Sat April 29 at 8 pm. Town Meeting will not be live, but will be cablecast several times after the event. The recent Center School Spring Band Concert continues. Photos by Greg Troxel show the Stow Selectmen's Perambulation of town boundaries. Destination Imagination photos are also displayed. Swing-jazz music of acoustic guitarist Guy Van Duser and clarinetist Billy Novick accompany the bulletin board slides.

May 4-10, 2006

Town Meeting

Photos of Minutemen Patriot's Day March

Candidates Night
Vote May 9

Stow "Candidates Night" introduces the candidates running for office in the May 9 election. Town Meeting encores can be seen over the weekend. The May 10 Selectmen meeting will be shown live. Photo displays include "Stow Minutemen Patriot's Day March", the "Stow Selectmen's Perambulation" of town boundaries, and "Destination Imagination".

May 11-23, 2006

Destination Imagination

DARE Graduation

Eagle Scouts
Court of Honor

Destination Imagination skits show off the Nashoba teams that will participate in the Global Competitions at the end of May. The skits are the culmination of months of work striving to solve given problems in a creative and humorous way. DARE Graduation recognized the graduating fifth grade class. The Eagle Scout Court of Honor inducted Scott Sacra and Geoffrey Tyler. Jazz Music by Bruce Thomas (piano) and Michael Farquharson (base) took place at First Parish Church.

May 25 – June 7, 2006

Enjoying Springfest

Springfest Parade

Fire Dept Water Polo

The Selectmen Meeting will be repeated. Lew Halprin walked around and recorded the "Springfest" festivities (33 min). The "Sounds of Stow" concert (2 hr) at First Parish Church completed the Springfest activities. The "Nashoba High Jazz Bands Pops Concert" (84 min) also took place last weekend. Bonnie Willoughby contributed the video on "Mass. 2006 USA Gymnastics State Championships" (1 hr). The Ashland Brestyan American team won first place, with a Stow competitor winning the 12 year old AA championship title.

June 8-21, 2006

Stow's "Memorial Day Parade and Ceremonies" (47 min) is featured. At the "Minuteman Visit to Center School" (85 minutes), children participate in demonstrations of life in the Minuteman times. Nashoba High School presents the "Pops Choral Concert" (73 minutes) with a dozen different groups performing. Suzanne Reine performed "An Evening of Harpsichord" (90 minutes) at First Parish Church recently. Lew Halprin recorded all the new programs in this schedule.

See the Springfest and Sounds of Stow photos by Greg Troxel and Dennis Walsh on the Bulletin Board. Photos of the Gymnastics Championships are by Bonnie Willoughby.

June 22-July 12, 2006

The "School Building Task Force Joint Meeting" provides an update the committee's progress. The "Selectmen Meeting" will be live at 7 pm June 27. It's Graduation time! "Hale Recognition Exercises" (40 min) was recorded by Stow TV. "Steppingstones Graduation" (40 min) was produced by Ross Perry. "Hale Spring Concert" (130 min) was recorded by Linda Stokes. Lew Halprin set up the sound for all these recordings. The "West School Museum Open House" featuring Revolutionary War medicine experts (30 min) was produced by Lew Halprin.

July 20-Aug 2, 2006

4th July Parade

West Schl: Depression

Library: Buzzing Insects

The "4th of July Parade" took place near Lake Boon. The library sponsored the "What's the Buzz in Your Backyard" program about insects. At West School Museum, the open house featured "Surviving the Depression," with music by Ed and Louise Heztler. "Hale Student Art" shows off the art displayed at Hale at the end of the school year. Lew Halprin produced all these programs.

The Board of Health sponsored "Being Prepared," a video that discusses emergency preparedness. Stow is forming an emergency preparedness team. To learn more about it, contact the Stow Board of Health. Tuesday is "Selectmen Meeting" day, live or encore. "Off the Wall" is on vacation for the summer.

The Bulletin Board features photos of the 4th of July parade, the West School open house, and the library program on Buzzing Insects by Lew Halprin, plus photos of the Council on Aging visit to Tower Hill Gardens by Jim Sauta.

August 3-23, 2006

Pumpnickel Puppets

Alice in Wonderland

Reading Magic

COA Trip to Fenway Park

The "School Building Task Force" presents a question and answer session describing their progress. Tuesday is "Selectmen Meeting" day, live or encore. Lew Halprin recorded two children's programs at Randall Library: the "Magic Show Salute to Reading" and the "Pumpnickel Puppets." Lew also recorded the Hale Summer Theater Workshop play "Alice in Wonderland." Jill Kern submitted the Assabet Valley Mastersingers concert featuring music by "Three New England Women of Song," recorded last spring in Southboro.

New photos on the bulletin board include the library magic and puppet shows, the play "Alice," and the Council on Aging trip to Fenway Park.

August 24 – September 6, 2006

Storytellers Jim LaChappelle and Tim Seston were recorded at the Randall library by Lew Halprin. The Stow West School Museum's program on "Surviving the Heat" with music by October Rose was recorded by David Gray. A photo show of Dennis Walsh's "Vacation Trip to Alaska", and Dwight Sipler's photo show of "Summer Flowers", are both magnificent. It's bicycle riding weather, and "The Rail Trail" from Hudson TV describes this bicycle trail that's under construction. New photos of "Wash the Fire Truck Day" are on the bulletin board. The "Selectmen Meeting" airs along with a new "School Building Taskforce."

September 7-27, 2006

"Play Soccer"

Lake Boon Water Carnival Festivities

Lake Boon Water Carnival video by Lew Halprin shows old-fashioned fun. "Water Carnival Festivities and Boat Parade" includes the canoe races, sack, 3-legged and wheelbarrow races, beach games, pie-eating contests and a watermelon toss. "Flippo Z Clown" entertains the kids with his magic. In "Music at Lake Boon", October Rose and guests perform followed by Absolute Groove on the Music Boat.* Lew's photos of the Water Carnival are on the Bulletin Board. This summer's "Play Soccer" camp was for grades 1-5. A video of photos by Beth Tobey shows the kids playing against parents. The "School Building Taskforce" Question and Answer session and "Selectmen Meeting" airs. "All About Voting" walks through the process for the upcoming state primary.

September 28 – October 11, 2006

Guttmann/Goldman Concert

Watercolors by George

"The End of the Wild"

West School
Back to School

Jossi Gutmann plays the viola and Ernest Goldman plays the piano in a concert of "23 Brahms Songs." The concert was held at the home of Bob and Dee Glorioso and recorded by Lew Halprin. At the West School Museum "Back to School" day, costumed school teacher Jennifer Hofmann shows what it was like to attend a one-room schoolhouse. Linda Stokes recorded and edited the video. "The End of the Wild" is an eye-opening talk about the "extinction crisis" by Prof. Stephen Meyer, sponsored by Friends of the Assabet River Wildlife Refuge and recorded by Sudbury TV. "Mass Access TV" is a video about local access TV stations. "Watercolors" shows a display of 45 watercolor paintings by George Dargaty. Photos of "Back to School Day" by Greg Troxel and Lew Halprin are on the Bulletin Board. "School Building Taskforce" and "Selectmen" meetings air.

October 12-24, 2006

Lee & Goldman
"Cello & Piano"

Barbara Spiegel
"Little People"

Dr. Abraham
"Teen Drug Use"

Charlie Chaplin
"The Cure"

"An Evening of Cello and Piano" with Ernest Goldman and Cellist Cecilia Lee was held at First Parish Church on Sep. 16. Lew Halprin and Bob Glorioso videotaped it. "Little People of America" is a talk by Barbara Spiegel given at Pompo school in the fall of 2003 and recorded by Lew Halprin. "Teen Drug Use" is a talk by Dr. Henry Abraham recorded by Lew Halprin last spring at Minuteman high school. "The Cure" is a Charlie Chaplin movie accompanied by Pianist Richard Hughes. Linda Stokes recorded the "Selectmen" meeting and the recent "School Building Taskforce" session that included Supt. Wood.

October 26 – November 15, 2006

Mark Twain

Library & SAPN
Halloween Parties

A Taste of Holland

Nutrition:
How Much to Eat

The "Library Halloween Party" features Magician Greg McAdams. Pre-schoolers celebrate at the "SAPN Halloween Party." Also see the Halloween photos on the Bulletin Board. "Mark Twain" is a fine performance by Richard Clark at the Council on Aging. "Nutrition: How Much to Eat" was the topic at the COA noontime meal. These were all produced by Lew Halprin. Landscape Designer Adriana O'Sullivan presented "A Taste of Holland" at the Stow Garden Club. "Family Emergency Preparedness," submitted by the Stow Medical Reserve Corps, describes how to build an emergency kit. A new "School Building Taskforce" begins Nov. 1. "Selectmen" airs several times.

November 16 - 30, 2006

Lower Village
Traffic

Assabet River
Scenes

Jeff Lance
Veteran

Pam Resor
Conservation

The "Veterans Day Talk" is by Jeff Lance at the Veterans' breakfast. "Runoff Matters" was requested by the Stow highway department. Dave Griffith shows his glorious photographs of "Assabet River Scenes" at the Organization for the Assabet River. Pam Resor describes legislation affecting "Land Conservation" with the Stow Conservation Trust. The "Union Church Fair" celebrates the fall harvest. The "Lower Village Traffic Study" presents recommendations for managing the traffic flow.

December 12-27, 2006

First Parish Organ Concert

Seaweed Art Exhibit

Breakfast With Santa

Greens & COA
Holiday Fairs

"Pulling Out All the Stops" is an organ and piano concert at First Parish Church, with a talk about the history of the organ. Starting Dec. 22, "Steppingstones Preschool Celebration Concert" will replace the second hour. "Holiday Fairs 2006" tours the recent Garden Club's greens sale and the COA Holiday Fair. "Breakfast with Santa" tours the Women's Club Pancake Breakfast. In "Seaweed Art Show," Stow residents Eva and Dan Barstow explain their seaweed art now on exhibit. A new "School Building Task Force" session is aired. On the Bulletin Board are photos by Linda Stokes of holiday lights around Stow.

---